

To Dr. William Stokes,

I am writing to you to ask, to plead that NIEHS adopt the new non-animal testing methods immediately. The non-animal test methods have been considered for almost 20 years and animals should and must not continue to suffer horrifying torture and slow death because of bearocratic inertia. I vigorously and wholeheartedly oppose the use of animals in outdated and crude poisoning methods.

Sincerely,
Lyn Edelman